

Contents

Preface	VIII
Acknowledgements	X
Introduction	XI

Collective Decision Making	1
Four Paradigms of Collective Decision Making	4
Three Paradigms of Collaboration	6
Realist Historical Investigation	11

PART 1

Majority

The British Trade Unions in 1824	23
Anglo-Saxon England	28
The Witenagemot	30
The Norman Imposition	38
The Question of Continuity	40
Medieval Church Practice	41
The Guilds	43
Oxford and Cambridge University	53
The Hanseatic League	58
The Methodist Church	60
London Corresponding Society	69
The Chartists	83
The Communist Secret Societies	101
The General Workers Unions	106

The End of Uncritical Majoritarianism	113
Europe between the Wars	116
The Front	118

PART 2

Consensus

English Revolution and the Quakers	128
The English Revolution	128
The Levellers and the New Model Army	129
Gerard Winstanley and the Diggers	135
Ranters and Seekers	139
The Quakers	142
The Quakers in Twentieth Century Pennsylvania	150
The Quaker Critique	154
New England Town Meetings	156
The Peace and Civil Rights Movements	159
James Lawson	165
Myles Horton and the Highlander	174
SNCC	186
The African and Slave Roots of the Black Baptist Churches	192
African Decision Making	192
The Baptist Church under Slavery	193
Eleanor Garst and Women Strike for Peace	197
Women Strike for Peace	200
The "Structure" of WSP	203
WSP and Feminism	206
The Quakers and Movement for a New Society	210
Anarchism and Decision Making	215
The International Workingmen's Association 1864	216
The Spanish Anarchists	221
Summary	228

PART 3

The Post World War Settlement

The Negation of Social Movements 236

The Negation of Negation – The Rise of Alliance Politics 239

Alliance Politics 240

Conclusion 243

References 247

Index 252