

Acknowledgements xi

Introduction 1

1. Beyond Buddhist Modernism 2
2. Reimagining Zen in the West 7
3. Cross-cultural Hermeneutics 10
4. A Secular Age 13
5. Outline of This Book 16

PART 1

Zen and the Immanent Frame

1 Zen Transmissions and Reimaginings 25

- 1 Reimagining Indian Buddhism as Chinese Chan 26
 - 1.1 Sudden Enlightenment versus Gradual Cultivation 30
 - 1.2 Beyond Language versus within Language 32
 - 1.3 Koan Practice versus Silent Illumination 36
- 2 Reimagining Chinese Chan as Japanese Zen 37
- 3 Zen Imaginings in the West 38
- 4 Discussion 42

2 A Secular Age 46

- 1 Introduction 46
- 2 Fullness 49
- 3 Beyond Subtraction Stories 52
- 4 Disenchantment 54
- 5 The Buffered Self 56
- 6 The Immanent Frame 57
- 7 A Three-Cornered Battle 60
- 8 Discussion 64

3 Cross Pressures in the Immanent Frame 73

- 1 The General Malaise of Immanence 73
- 2 Enlightenment as a New Form of Fullness 75
- 3 Disenchantment versus Re-enchantment 78
- 4 Beyond Transcendence and Immanence 82
- 5 Open versus Closed Zen Practice 84
- 6 Discussion 87

PART 2 Zen Modernism

4 Universalization: Zen as Universal Mysticism 95

- 1 The Birth of Buddhism as a World Religion 96
- 2 Universal Zen 99
- 3 Pure Experience 102
- 4 Criticizing the Universality of Pure Experience 104
- 5 Against Perennialism: Criticism of Universal Mysticism 107
- 6 Zen as Non-mysticism 108
- 7 Back to Language: Dogeris Mystical Hermeneutics 110
- 8 Zen Meditation as Universal Dharma Practice 112
- 9 Discussion 114

5 Psychologization: The Zen Experience 120

- 1 Psychologization 120
 - 2 Disenchanted the Bodhisattvas 123
 - 3 Questioning the Zen Experience 125
 - 4 Beyond Religious Experience 128
 - 5 Going Beyond Excarnation and the Buffered Self 130
 - 6 Dogen's Embodied Realization 131
 - 7 Discussion 136
- 6 The Therapeutic Turn: Zen as Therapy 139
- 1 From Conversion to Healing 140
 - 2 The Reaffirmation of Ordinary Life 142
 - 2.1 Zen and the Affirmation of Ordinary Life 144
 - 2.2 Dogen on the Affirmation of Ordinary Life 147
 - 3 The Medicalization of the Moral 148
 - 4 Instrumentalization versus No Gain 151
 - 5 Discussion 153
- 7 The Rise of Expressive Individualism: Zen as Global Spirituality 158
- 1 The Rise of Expressive Individualism 158
 - 2 Personal Spirituality versus Communal Religious Practice 162
 - 3 Religious Belonging 164
 - 4 Zen Belonging in the West 166
 - 5 Pure Zen versus Buddhist Zen 168
 - 6 Zen Ritual as Communal Practice 170
 - 7 Discussion 173

PART 3 Beyond Zen Modernism

- 8 Batchelor's Secular Buddhism 181
- 1 The Search for the Human Buddha 183
 - 2 Beyond Karma 187
 - 3 Reimagining Enlightenment 189
 - 4 Discussion 192
- 9 Reimagining Emptiness: Toward a Subtler Language of Fullness 197
- 1 The Kyoto School 197
 - 2 Sunyata as Zen Fullness 198
 - 3 Nishitani and Sunyata 201
 - 4 Hisamatsu and Oriental Nothingness 203
 - 5 Masao Abe 205
 - 6 David Loy's New Buddhist Path 206
 - 6.1 Deconstructing Enlightenment: Beyond Transcendence and Immanence 209
 - 6.2 Evolution: A New Enchanted Buddhist Worldview 212
 - 6.3 Ethics: Reimagining the Bodhisattva Path 214
 - 7 Discussion 216
- 10 Engaging Dogen's Zen 220
- 1 Back to Buddhist Scriptures 221
 - 2 An Enchanted Zen 223
 - 3 Zen Fullness as Ongoing Practice-Realization 224
 - 4 From Individual Pure Zen to Communal Bodhisattva Zen 225
 - 5 Dogen's Shushogi 227
 - 5.1 Repenting and Eliminating Bad Karma 227
 - 5.2 Receiving Precepts and Joining the Ranks 231
 - 6 Making the Vow to Benefit Beings 233

- 7 Discussion 236
- 8 The Future of Zen 237

Literature 241

Index 258