

Contributors ix

List of Figures and Tables xvi

Introduction: Mediating a Hapless Postcolonialism through Experiential Critique 1

Helen Yitah

Part 1

The Humanities and the Postcolonial Experience

1 Philosophical Foundations of the Humanities 11

Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak

2 The Humanities and the Postcolonial Ghanaian Experience:

The Jubilee Year 32

Kofi N. Awoonor

3 Beyond the Labor Market: Reinforcing the Epistemic Advantage of African Universities in the Global Knowledge Society 45

Helen Lauer

4 Contemporary Ghanaian Dance: A Basis for Scholarly Investigation of the Human Condition 72

Francis Nii-Yartey

5 The Formulation of Research in the Humanities: Perspectives from the Creative Arts 88

J. H. Kwabena Nketia

Part 2

The Humanities and National Identity

6 The Humanities and the Idea of National Identity 103

Kwasi Wiredu

7 Ghanaian Neo-traditional Performance and 'Development':
Multiple Interfaces between Rural and Urban, Traditional and Modern 120

E. John Collins

8 Kofi Awoonor: The Essays of a Humanist 139

Olúfẹ́mi Táíw.

9 Sell, Borrow, Work or Migrate? Exploring the Choice of Coping
Strategies in Ghana 152

Abena Oduro

Part 3

Language and Knowledge Production from Postcolonial Perspectives

10 Scientific Decolonization and Language Use in the Study of African

Medicine, Religion, and Art 171
Alexis B. Tengan

11 Credibility and Accountability in Academic Discourse:
Increasing the Awareness of Ghanaian Graduate Students 197
Gordon S. K. Adika

12 About the English Language in Ghana Today and about Ghanaian
English and Languaging in Ghana 220
Kari Dako

13 Polylectal Description: Reflections on Experience in Ghana 254
M. E. Kropp Dakubu

Part 4 Afterwords

14 Nii: A Recollection on Obits 277
James Gibbs

15 Memories of Kofi Awoonor in Texas 283
Bernth Lindfors

16 Mary Esther Kropp Dakubu: A Tribute 287
Helen Lauer

Index 289