

Editors' Introduction vii

Preface: Justice and Sorrow ix

John Lacks Acknowledgments xiv

Notes on Contributors xv

PART 1

Terrorism and Its Discontents

- 1 Forgetting and Remembering History: Memory and Self-Identity 3
Jaquelyn Ann Kegley
- 2 The Life of Reason and Terrorism: Strategies 16
Herman J. Saatkamp, Jr.
- 3 Managing Necessity: Santayana on Forms of Power and the Human Condition 28
Katarzyna Krempleska
- 4 Santayanan Reason, Terror and Terrorism, and the Everyday World 43
Charles Padrón
- 5 Assassination Nation: The Drone as Thanatological Dispositif 61
Eduardo Mendieta
- 6 Santayana and the (Postmodern) Spirit of Terrorism 79
Luka Nikolic

PART 2

The Circumscribing Political Context

- 7 Santayana, Self-Knowledge and the Limits of Politics 93
Till Kinzel
- 8 Santayana on Americanism 103
Daniel Moreno
- 9 Liberalism and the Vertigo of Spirit: Santayana's Political Theodicy 115
Matthew Caleb Flamm
- 10 Dewey Santayana, and 'Ndrangheta: Understanding a Complex Phenomenon 134
Matteo Santarelli
- 11 "A Happy Snow-Flake Dancing in the Flaw": Reflections on Santayanan Alternatives and Surviving a New Dark Age 154
Nóra Horvath

PART 3

Barbarism, Fanaticism, Madness, and Egotism

- 12 Barbarism Begins at Home: Santayana and Barbarism in Art and Life 169
Giuseppe Patella
- 13 Egotism, Violence and the Devil: On Santayana's Use of the Concept of Egotism 181
Daniel Pinkas
- 14 A Religion without Fanaticism: Little Lessons of Wisdom from Santayana 196
José Beltran Llavador

- 15 Santayana on Pluralism, Relativism and Rationality 214
Andrés Tutor
 - 16 Santayana's Idea of Madness and Normal Madness in a Troubled
Age 227
Cayetano Estébanez
 - 17 Santayana's Philosophy of Education against Fanaticism and Barbarity 245
Krzysztof Piotr Skowronski
- Index 261