

Acknowledgements xi
List of Figures and Tables xiv

Prelude 1

Introduction 1
Introducing the Russells and Their Works 1
The Challenge of the Scottish Enlightenment Abroad 6

PART 1

Living the Scottish Enlightenment

- 1 From Edinburgh to Aleppo 21
Education and Medical Training 24
1735 to 1740. Alexander Russell: toward Aleppo 33
Conclusions 39
- 2 With the Levant Company in Aleppo 40
Life with the Levant Company in Aleppo 41
Bazaars, Suqs and the Khan al-Jumruk 48
Entertainment 57
Visitors 60
Explorers and Eccentric Travellers 60
Travellers en route to and from India 66
Leaving Aleppo 71
- 3 After Aleppo 77
1755 to 1768. Alexander Russell in London 77
1772 to 1781. Patrick Russell in Edinburgh and London 89
Edinburgh 89
London 90
With the East India Company 93
1789 Onwards. After India 105
Patrick's Final Years 110
Patrick's Death and Heritage 111
Conclusions 113

PART 2

The "Literary-Artistic": Setting the Scene

- 4 Introducing Aleppo¹ and Aleppo² 119
Enlightenment as Cultural Revolution: Books and Translations 119
Aleppo¹ 119
Aleppo² 125
Enlightenment as a Constellation of Practices: Intertextuality 128
Enlightenment as Image-Making: Visuality 133
Enlightenment as Media Revolution: Compendia, Journals and Book Reviews 140
Compendia 142
Journals and Book Reviews 143

PART 3

The Natural History of Religions, Politics and the Everyday

- 5 Exploring the Cosmopolitan Everyday 157
Cosmopolitan Aleppo 158
Christians in Aleppo 164
Jews in Aleppo 165
Ottoman Despotism and Political Authority 167
Legal Balances and Aleppo's Militia 173
Changing European Attitudes to Religions 176

- 6 On Sophistication and Pleasure 187
 - Food and Diet 190
 - On the Turkish harem 193
 - Coffee-Houses and Puppet Shows 199
 - Shadow Puppets as Political Commentary 203
 - Music 205
 - Fictional Realities 211
 - Conclusions 213

PART 4

Scientific Enlightenment and "New Medicine"

- 7 Medical Practice in Ottoman Aleppo 219
 - Medical Authorities 221
 - Clinical Practice 224
 - Therapeutics 229
- 8 Pathology and Epidemics 241
 - Epidemic Diseases: Three Different Research Paths 242
 - Oca 242
 - Smallpox 245
 - Of the Plague and Contagion 251
 - The Impact of The Treatise of the Plague on Aleppo² 254
 - Different Types of the Plague 256
 - Possible Causes of the Plague 258
 - Quarantine and lazarettos 261
 - Advising the Privy Council of Great Britain 264
 - Medical Arithmetic and Its Impact 266

PART 5

Scientific Enlightenment, Natural History and Improvements

- 9 Flora and Fauna of Aleppo 277
 - Catalogues and Commentaries 277
 - Of Quadrupeds 277
 - Of Birds 284
 - Of Fishes 286
 - Of Reptiles and Insects, &c. 288
 - Of Plants 289
 - Classifications, Buffon and Linnaeus 294
 - Local Terms and Arabic Authorities 300
- 10 Gardens and the Trope of Romanticism 303
 - Aleppine Gardens 303
 - Georgian Gardens and Exotic Seeds 307
- 11 Natural History in India 316
 - Fauna of the Carnatic 325
 - Fishes 325
 - Insects and Serpents 327
 - Flora of the Carnatic 334
 - Exploring and Improving materia medica in India 335
 - Experimental Crops and Useful Plants 338

PART 6

Curiosity, Wonder and Enlightenment

- 12 Collecting: Identification and Authentication 349
 - Chaplains, Coins and Curiosities 350
 - Arabic Medical Manuscripts 352

Identifying Oriental Manuscripts Collected by the Russells 356
 Alf Laylah wa Laylah 357
 On the Authenticity of the Arabian Nights' Tales 364
 More Oriental Manuscripts 369
Conclusions 372

Epilogue 374

Appendix 1 The Family of John Russells of Braidshaw 379
Appendix 2 Notes on the Commerce, Capitulations and Echelles
of the Levant 383
Appendix 3 The Contents of Aleppo¹ and Aleppo² 389

Bibliography 401
Index 447