

Preface.....	15
Introduction.....	17
Chapter One Aspects of Physiognomy	29
1. Cities	32
1.1. City Life	32
1.2. London, Paris, Berlin.....	34
1.3. The Rise of Suburbia	39
2. The Environment	39
2.1. Symphony in Black.....	39
2.2. The Defilement of Nature.....	43
2.2.1. Against Nature.....	47
3. Architecture	50
3.1. Its Leading Role	50
3.1.1. Harmony and Unity	52
3.2. Decline.....	53
3.2.1. Prestige of the Architect	56
3.3. New Demands	58
4. Style and Form	61
4.1. A Carnival of Styles.....	61
4.2. Lack of Style.....	64
4.2.1. Colonnades of Confusion.....	67
4.2.2. Temples of Greed.....	69
4.3. Formlessness.....	71
4.4. Costume of the Age	74
4.4.1. Dressed in Black.....	78
Notes	81
Chapter Two Disintegration.....	111
1. Individualization	114
1.1. God and Man.....	114
1.2. Man for Himself.....	116
1.3. Man as Creator	118
1.3.1. Creation versus Invention (pre-1801).....	118
1.3.2. To rival God.....	120
1.4. Individualism.....	123
1.4.1. Crisis of Individuality.....	125

2.	Fragmentation	126
2.1.	Anarchy and Chaos.....	126
2.2.	Atomization and Dissolution	131
2.3.	The Dust of Convictions	134
3.	Diremptio	135
3.1.	General.....	135
3.2.	Thinking and Doing	136
3.3.	Body and Mind.....	137
3.4.	The Arts	138
3.4.1.	Art and Life	138
3.4.2.	Art and Work.....	139
4.	Cultural Anarchy	139
4.1.	Science and Knowledge	139
4.1.1.	Specialization.....	139
4.1.2.	The Part and the Whole.....	141
4.1.3.	Vivisection	142
4.1.4.	Knowledge and Wisdom.....	143
4.1.5.	Unity Lost	144
4.2.	Crumbling Aesthetics	144
4.2.1.	Literature.....	144
4.2.2.	Painting and Music.....	147
4.3.	Cultural Centralization	149
	Notes	152
	Chapter Three The Democratic Way.....	175
1.	Votes for Everybody	179
1.1.	General Suffrage	179
1.2.	Parliamentarism	181
1.3.	Democracy and Equality.....	182
1.3.1.	Mediocrity	184
1.4.	'Give us a Leader!'	186
1.4.1.	Metaphors	189
2.	Art and Democracy	190
2.1.	Disrespect for the Past.....	190
2.2.	Aristocrats versus Democrats	191
2.3.	The Rise of the Novel	192
3.	Pseudo-Authorities	193
3.1.	Press	193
3.2.	Public Opinion.....	197
3.3.	Common Sense.....	202
3.4.	Publicity and Phraseology	203
	Notes	209

Chapter Four Man and Machinery.....	229
1. Mechanization	232
1.1. Faith in Machines.....	232
1.2. The Curse of Machines.....	233
1.3. Specifications.....	236
1.3.1. A Metaphor: the Wheel.....	236
1.3.2. An Example: the Railways.....	237
1.3.3. The Mechanization of War.....	239
1.4. Identification.....	240
1.5. Master and Slave.....	243
2. Thought and Style	248
2.1. Habits of Thought.....	248
2.2. Style.....	249
2.3. Artistic Production.....	250
2.3.1. Artistic Overproduction.....	251
2.4. Art and Photography.....	253
Notes.....	256
Chapter Five Money and Commerce.....	271
1. The Cult of Money	272
1.1. Money is Power.....	272
1.1.1. Banknotes and Coins.....	276
1.2. Philanthropy.....	277
2. Commercial Centres	278
2.1. The Stock Exchange.....	278
2.2. World Exhibitions.....	279
Notes.....	284
Chapter Six Ideological Confusion.....	293
1. The Gospel of Labour	296
1.1. Never-ceasing Work.....	296
1.2. Leisure.....	301
1.3. Recreation.....	305
2. The Idolatry of Progress	307
2.1. False Assumptions.....	307
2.2. Inevitability or Choice?.....	309
2.3. Fundamentals.....	310
2.4. The Road to Destruction.....	313
2.4.1. The 'Titanic' Disaster.....	315
2.5. Dialectical Compensation.....	316
2.6. Paradoxical Aspects.....	317

2.7.	Historical Comparisons	319
2.8.	Questions	322
2.9.	Irony, Hatred, Rodomontade	323
2.10.	Art and Progress	327
	Notes	329
	Chapter Seven Ends and Means	351
1.	Absence of Ends	354
1.1.	Aimlessness	354
1.2.	TowhatEnd?.....	355
1.3.	Forgotten Aims.....	357
2.	Ends and Means	358
2.1.	Mutual Relations	358
2.2.	Confusion	359
2.3.	Specifications.....	361
2.3.1.	Industrialism	361
2.3.2.	Economic Activity.....	362
2.3.3.	Action for Actions Sake	363
2.3.4.	Wealth.....	364
2.3.5.	Education.....	366
2.3.5.1.	Classics	366
2.3.5.2.	Learning	367
2.3.6.	Technology	368
2.3.7.	Absurdities	369
	Notes	372
	Chapter Eight Threats to the Individual	383
1.	The Nature of Work	386
1.1.	The Division of Labour.....	386
1.2.	Specialization.....	389
2.	The Individual and the Crowd	391
2.1.	De-individualization.....	391
2.2.	Massification	396
2.2.1.	Militarism.....	402
2.3.	Isolation	403
3.	Homogeneity	405
3.1.	Standardization and Levelling	405
3.2.	Conformity and Uniformity	408
4.	Accelerando	409
4.1.	Times of Old	409
4.2.	Move We Must!.....	410

4.3.	Immediacy.....	413
4.4.	Fever and Insanity.....	414
4.5.	Means and Meaning.....	415
4.6.	The Pace of Change.....	416
4.7.	Art and Acceleration.....	418
5.	Lost simplicity	419
5.1.	Complexity.....	419
5.2.	The Abstract and the General.....	421
	Notes	425
	Chapter Nine Devitalization.....	449
1.	Decline in Vigour	453
1.1.	The Cost of Civilization.....	453
1.2.	Loss of Youth and Virtue.....	458
1.3.	Loss of Energy and Courage.....	460
1.4.	Lack of Passion.....	463
1.5.	Effeminacy and Refinement.....	464
1.6.	Weakness and Exhaustion.....	467
1.7.	Boredom and Indifference.....	470
1.7.1.	Sunday Bloody Sunday.....	474
1.8.	A Hothouse Climate.....	475
2.	Abundance	476
2.1.	Luxury.....	476
2.2.	Personal Comfort.....	478
3.	Negative Vitality	480
3.1.	Artificial Excitement.....	480
3.2.	Stimulants and Sedatives.....	481
3.2.1.	Tobacco.....	481
3.2.2.	Alcohol.....	482
3.2.3.	Opium, Laudanum, etc.....	484
4.	Musicalization of Culture	484
4.1.	The Tyranny of Music.....	484
4.2.	Temptation.....	486
4.3.	Dissolving Views.....	487
4.3.1.	Intoxication.....	489
	Notes	492
	Chapter Ten Psychological Traits.....	515
1.	Emotions	520
1.1.	Tragedy and Death.....	520
1.2.	Happiness, Spontaneity and Joy.....	521

1.3. Love	523
1.3.1. Sex and Marriage.....	523
1.3.2. Domesticity and Respectability	528
2. Seriousness	532
2.1. Serious and Morbid Times	532
2.2. Laughter	536
2.3. Festivals and Festivities	539
3. The Inward and the Outward	542
3.1. Inwardness.....	542
3.2. 'Tout est dehors'	545
3.3. Outwardness	547
3.3.1. The Fear of Silence	549
3.4. Being and Doing	549
4. Anxieties	550
4.1. Symptoms of Unease	550
4.1.1. Spleen	550
4.1.2. Melancholy, Sadness, Suffering, Nausea	554
4.1.3. Worry, Doubts, Restlessness.....	558
4.1.4. Nerves and Neuroses.....	558
4.1.5. 'Poetes de l'Hopital'	562
4.2. Suicidal Tendencies	566
Notes	569
Chapter Eleven Art and Alienation.....	599
1. Art	603
1.1. Purpose.....	603
1.2. Content	608
1.3. National or Cosmopolitan?.....	610
1.3.1. Excursus: Wagner in France (post-1870).....	612
2. Art for Art's Sake	614
2.1. Usage (before 1840).....	614
2.1.1. Excursus: The Case of Victor Hugo.....	616
2.1.2. A Related Term	617
2.2. Protest.....	618
3. Artists	619
3.1. Alienation and Isolation	619
3.1.1. A Metaphor: Robinson Crusoe	622
3.2. Who's to blame?.....	623
Notes	629

Chapter Twelve Past, Present, Future	647
1. Historicity	652
1.1. Lure of the Past	652
1.2. Living in Retrospect.....	654
1.3. Lost Glory	656
1.3.1. Middle Ages	656
1.3.2. Renaissance	658
1.4. The Burden of the Past	660
1.5. Crushing Heritage	663
1.5.1. Desperation	663
1.5.2. A Continuous Challenge	668
1.6. Submission.....	671
1.7. Inertia	673
2. Museums and Libraries	674
2.1. Theft and Displacement	674
2.1.1. Motherless Children	676
2.2. Warehouses	677
2.3. Hospitals and Mortuaries	678
2.4. The Myth of Education.....	680
2.4.1. Ravagers.....	681
2.5. Libraries	682
3. Demands of the Present	683
3.1. To be of one's own Time	683
3.1.1. Nowness	688
3.2. To be Intense and Original.....	690
3.3. To be Novel and Modern.....	691
3.4. What about Posterity?	693
4. Anticipation	695
4.1. A Transitional Period	695
4.2. Futurity	698
Notes	702
Chapter Thirteen Europe: Divisions and Dilemmas	733
1. North-South Dichotomy	736
1.1. Mental Disposition	736
1.2. Artistic Inclination	740
1.2.1. Romanticism versus Classicism.....	741
1.3. Physical and Psychological	744
1.4. Energy and Idleness.....	746
1.5. The Protestant Ethic.....	748
2. Hope and Despair	750
2.1. A Sense of Ending.....	750

2.1.1.	Moribund Europe	750
2.1.2.	The Medical Metaphor.....	754
2.1.2.1.	The Time is Sick	754
2.1.2.2.	Fatal Illness.....	755
2.2.	Loss and Longing	756
3.	Big Brother	757
3.1.	Negative Perceptions of America	757
3.2.	Fears of Americanization	760
3.3.	A Fresh Start?.....	763
4.	Identity and Unity	765
4.1.	War and Peace	765
4.2.	European Identity.....	768
4.3.	European Unity	771
	Notes	774
	Biographical Author Index	799
	Name Index	877